Вступление

- It's common knowledge that a family means people who support and encourage us throughout our life, who we can rely on whenever we need help. Many families have important traditions that family members share. Eating out is one of them. Going on a picnic or having a party at the restaurant is a great opportunity to gather all family members together.

Mum, Dad and their two children are sitting on the green grass eating delicious food: fruit, cakes and drinking juice. They might have cooked food at home and brought it in the food basket to their country house which we can see in the background. I get the impression that the family look happy, they are chatting and seem to be enjoying themselves.

- The second picture shows a family having a party at the restaurant. The table is beautifully served. The family might be celebrating birthday or just having dinner. The people in the picture look happy as the atmosphere seems to be warm and friendly, the food well-cooked, fresh and delicious. Looking at the picture I hear the sounds of soothing soft music that don't prevent the family from having a pleasant conversation.

Выбор 1

- If you ask me, I like home-made food, but I'd rather prefer eating out at the restaurant or café from time to time because it's a good idea to change the atmosphere and surroundings. Furthermore, you can listen to live music and dance to it. Moreover, a restaurant is a good place not only for having meals, but for discussing new plans, having a family special party or just celebrating an important event which can be unforgettable.

Выбор 2

- As for me, I'd rather choose a picnic in some picturesque place near a river or a lake because I love nature and it helps me relax after busy weekdays and hectic lifestyle. Also, I must say I like barbeque and grilled vegetables cooked on the fire. It tastes really delicious. Last but not least, keeping family traditions makes us friendlier, more supportive and respectful.

Заклучение

- In conclusion, I would say that every family can choose the way of spending time together. Nowadays families see less of each other than they used to. This is because people often move away from home town to work and so the family becomes scattered. A family party is the traditional time for reunions. Family parties may be all the more joyous when they bring together relatives who haven't seen each other for a while no matter whether the party takes place in or out.
